"Engaging and mesmerizing." South China Morning Post
"A beguiling memoir." Hong Kong Review of Books
"Law-dropping, soul-baring, enlightening." Honolulu Star-Advertiser

A high position bestowed by China's empress dowager grants power and wealth to the Sun family. For Isabel, growing up in glamorous 1930s and '40s Shanghai is a life of various privileges. But while her scholar father and Ye Xuanzhi mother protect her from civil war and Japanese occupation, they cannot shield the family forever.

When Mao comes to power, sixteen-year-old Isabel escapes to Hong Kong, not realizing that she will make a big book—and that she will never see her father again. She returns to Shanghai 1970 years later with her daughter, Qianqian, to uncover their family's past—how they survived a flood with love and betrayal, kidnapping and concubines, glowering palates and underworld crime boss.

Lavishly illustrated and meticulously researched, Remembering Shanghai follows five generations from a hardy, hard-boiled village in the bright light of Hong Kong. By Sara Hazzow and heartwarming, this vivid memoir explores identity, loss, and redemption against an epic backdrop.
