About the Book

Southern Girl Meets Vegetarian Boy is a cookbook and memoir by Natasha Craver, a Southern girl who fell in love with a vegetarian boy. The book chronicles their journey of learning to cook and eat together, despite their different dietary restrictions.

Craver grew up in a small town in Mississippi, where meat and potatoes were the staples of every meal. Jesse, on the other hand, grew up in a vegetarian household in California. When they met in college, they quickly realized that their different upbringings would pose a challenge to their relationship.

But Craver was determined to make their relationship work. She started by learning how to cook vegetarian dishes. At first, she found it difficult to give up her favorite Southern comfort foods. But over time, she began to discover the joys of vegetarian cooking. She learned how to make delicious meals that were both healthy and satisfying.

In Southern Girl Meets Vegetarian Boy, Craver shares her recipes for some of her favorite vegetarian dishes. She also shares her story of how she and Jesse learned to compromise and find a way to eat together that both of them enjoyed.
