

The Story of Saving Samia: A Journey from Poverty and Abuse to Hope and Healing

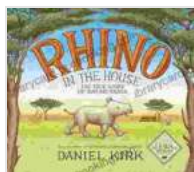

Samia's Story

Samia Yusuf Omar was born into poverty in a small village in Somalia. Her father died when she was young, and her mother struggled to provide for her and her siblings. When Samia was 12 years old, she was sold into slavery by her uncle. She was taken to Kenya and forced to work as a domestic servant.

Samia was subjected to horrific abuse by her captors. She was beaten, starved, and sexually assaulted. She was also forced to work long hours without pay. Despite the terrible conditions, Samia never gave up hope. She dreamed of one day being free.
